

Know Him
Trust Him
Rest in Him
Obey Him

Psalm 145:8

June Kimmel

The Lord is Gracious

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life?

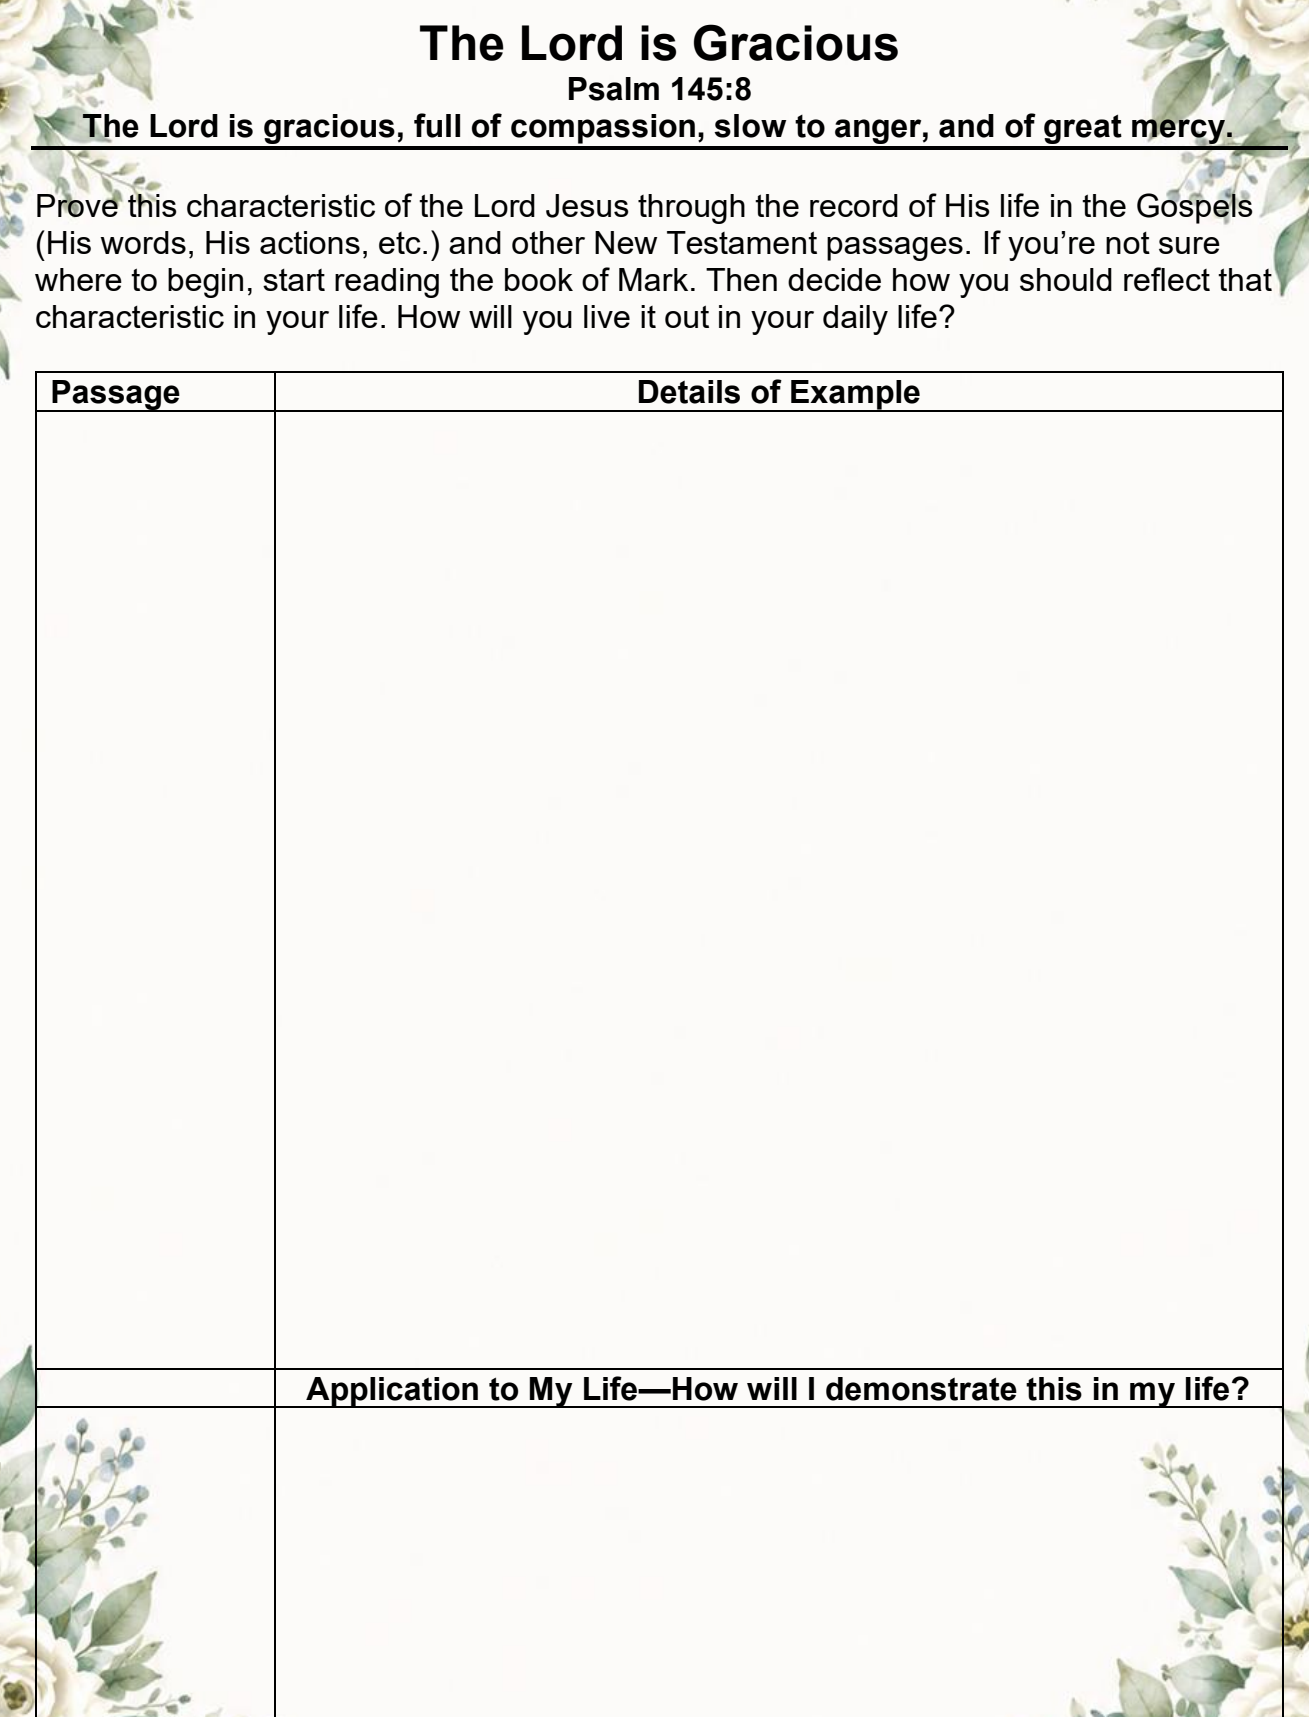

The Lord is Gracious

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life?

The Lord is Gracious

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life?

[illegible]

The Lord is Gracious

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life?

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

The Lord is Full of Compassion
Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
	Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life.

[illegible]

The Lord is Slow to Anger

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

The Lord is Slow to Anger

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

The Lord is Slow to Anger

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

The Lord is Slow to Anger

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

[illegible]

The Lord is of Great Mercy
Psalm 145:8
The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
	Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life.

This is a decorative worksheet for a religious study or devotion. The title "The Lord is of Great Mercy" is prominently displayed at the top center in a large, bold, black serif font. Directly beneath it, "Psalm 145:8" is written in a smaller, standard black font. A key verse, "The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy," is underlined and placed above a paragraph of instructional text. This text encourages the user to prove the Lord's characteristics through Gospel records and other New Testament passages, specifically mentioning the book of Mark as a starting point if unsure. Below the text is a large table designed for personal reflection. The table has three rows and two columns. The first row serves as a header, with the left column labeled "Passage" and the right column labeled "Details of Example". The second row is a large, empty space for detailed notes. The third row is divided by a vertical line; the left portion is empty, while the right portion contains the heading "Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life." The entire page is framed by elegant floral decorations, including white roses and green leaves in each corner, and small star-like motifs along the top and bottom center edges.

The Lord is of Great Mercy

Psalm 145:8

The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
	Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life.

[illegible]

The Lord is of Great Mercy
Psalm 145:8
The Lord is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Prove this characteristic of the Lord Jesus through the record of His life in the Gospels (His words, His actions, etc.) and other New Testament passages. If you're not sure where to begin, start reading the book of Mark. Then decide how you should reflect that characteristic in your life. How will you live it out in your daily life?

Passage	Details of Example
	Application to My Life—How will I demonstrate this in my life.

[illegible]